

Renata Martins

renata.martins@cantidiano.com.br

+ 55 21 3842-2788

She has extensive experience in complex litigation and arbitration proceedings, mainly focusing on contracts and corporate transactions, having advised clients from different market segments and sizes, including some of the largest companies in Brazil and foreign companies.

She has experience in participating in Due Diligence processes and preparing reports, with an understanding of the corporate transactions carried out.

She has worked as a lawyer in the dispute resolution practices at Lobo & Ibeas Advogados, Mattos Filho, Veiga Filho e Marrey Jr. Advogados and GT Lawyers, in the latter acting as a practice manager.

EDUCATION

- Master's degree in International Economic Relations Law
Pontifícia Universidade Católica de São Paulo (2026)
- Advanced Course on International Arbitration
SciencesPo, TADS/CAM-CCBC (2023)
- Specialization in Arbitration
Pontifícia Universidade Católica de São Paulo (2022)
- Post-graduation in Civil Procedural Law
Pontifícia Universidade Católica de São Paulo (2012)
- LL.B
Universidade Presbiteriana Mackenzie (2009)

LANGUAGES

Portuguese, English and Spanish